It's a Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns it doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the king of throat and lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and cold and la grippe vanish. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing steps. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. More, Black Jack, N. C., writes, "it cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

J. W. PERRY'S TRANSACTION.

A Letter From Col. A. W. Hamilton, of Montgomery County, to H. M. Cox.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 12, 1905.

Henry M. Cox, West Liberty, Ky.
My Dear Henry—My mother, the widow of the late General John S. Williams, has handed me your letter of the 3rd inst., and has asked me to give you the facts of J. W. Perry's treachery to General Williams in his memorable contest for the United States Senate. Perry's betrayal of General Williams at that contest was the basest act of personal and political ingratitude in the history of Kentucky. Perry had been elected to the Legislature from Owen county upon his pledge to the people that he would vote for General Williams. During the entire contest he was a member of Williams' trusted committee, and in possession of all the secret plans of his campaign. At the last moment when Williams needed but one vote to nominate him Perry basely deserted him and went over to the enemy, carrying all of Williams' confidential plans with him, and defeated him by the bare majority of his one vote. What made Perry's treachery all the baser was the fact that I had not only furnished him five hundred ($500) dollars with which to make his race for the Legislature, but after his election I loaned him six hundred ($600) dollars upon his plea that his baby was sick, and that he was in great need of the money to send his wife and baby to Louisville to Dr. Yandell for treatment. So at the time of his desertion he had the benefit of eleven hundred ($1100) dollars of money which had been furnished him, because he told he was Williams' devoted friend; had enlisted under him and had served under him in the Confederate army, and that he would cut off his right arm before he would vote against him. These facts can be verified by Judge B. F. Day, of this county, who is cognizant of my assistance to Perry, and who induced Perry after the Senatorial contest was over, to refund me five hundred ($500) dollars of the money. What Perry got out of the transaction I never know. The report as I heard it was that he got five thousand ($5000) dollars. I don't know whether it was true or not, but this I do know, that from that day to this wherever his conduct is known his name has been a byword and a reproach among honorable men. I have no interest in the present campaign for the Senate but I write you these facts because I believe that every old Confederate soldier in Morgan county ought to know how Perry treated his old General who had sworn him into the service of the Confederate Army, and how he betrayed and deserted him in the hour of his extremity. Yours very truly,

A. W. HAMILTON.

H. M. Cox, being duly sworn, states that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the letter from Col. A. W. Hamilton to him, and that he has the original now in his possession.
H. M. Cox.
Subscribed and sworn to October 20, 1909.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE

Double Vote Offer in Louisville Herald's Great Mediterranean Trip Contest Provides Opportunity To Secure Number of Votes Necessary To Win Membership in Delightful Tour.

A great opportunity to secure the number of votes necessary to win membership in the Louisville Herald's Tour to southern Europe is presented in a special offer announced in connection with the Herald's Mediterranean trip contest.

Beginning Monday, October 18th and continuing until October 30th, the Louisville Herald will give twice the usual number of votes on all subscription payments made on account of the contest. The special offer applies to all new and old subscriptions for payments of one dollar or more. This offer will positively not be duplicated, and at no time in the contest will subscriptions count for as many votes as during the time of the double vote offer.

As an instance of how rapidly votes will count up under the special offer it is only necessary to state that with a single new subscription for three years a voting certificate for 14,600 votes will be given. This number of votes alone would be sufficient with the present standing to place any contestant in the lead in any district and with votes to spare. It will be readily apparent how quickly a magnificent vote can be secured under the provisions of the double vote offer.

The next two weeks, while the special offer is in effect, is the time when the contestants already entered should prosecute their campaign with the greatest energy and vigor. In the instance of contestants who have considered entering but have not yet done so the special offer provides an exceptional opportunity to enter the contest for the trips with splendid chances for success. Proper appreciation of the wonderful value of the special offer and effective work while the offer is in effect may be the means of winning the active contestant membership in the Herald's Mediterranean trip party.

The trip offered by the Herald will be a fascinating experience, and will be as beneficial in an educational way as it is enjoyable and delightful. The trip will start on January 8th, 1910, and two months will be consumed in visiting such points of wonderful interest as The Azores, Madeira, Gibraltar, Genoa, Nice, Monte Carlo, Cannes, Milan, Florence, Venice, Rome and Naples (Pompeii, Vesuvius.) The ocean voyages will be made on the magnificent and luxurious ocean greyhounds of the Cunard Line, the "Caronia" and "Carmania." Every expense of the trip from the time the party leaves home until it returns will be borne by the Herald. Twenty women will take the trip, those taking the trip being the winners in the different districts in the contest.

Those who wish to be among the happy twenty to go on this delightful trip should communicate at once with the contest editor of the Louisville Herald. Full information and instructions for any one wishing to enter will be gladly given upon request made to the contest department of The Louisville Herald, Louisville, Ky.

The Best Way to Find Out.

Cannel City, Ky., Oct. 19, '09.
Dear Mr. Cooper: Enclosed you will find $1.00, for which please send me THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD one year. My husband and I were students of H. G. A. at one time and still love that place and all the people over there and want to know what they are all doing. We have no better way of finding out about the school and the people than through that good little paper you call THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD. Yours respectfully,
Mrs. ERNEST E. ELAM.
